3.7 CERTIFICATE EXTENSIONS - OBL

3.7.9 The EU Type-examination certificate extension identifies the Distributor as Customer and reports the PPE identification as the one used by the Distributor. The EU Type-examination certificate extension shall contain the words "the validity of this certificate is subject to the validity of the certificate (follows number of the Original Certificate) this is the extension of", meaning that the EU Type-examination certificate extension will lose its validity and effectiveness if, for any reason, the EU Type-examination certificate which it refers to becomes invalid or ineffective.

3.8 SUSPENSION AND WITHDRAWAL OF CERTIFICATION

3.8.1 The use of Certificate is considered improper whenever it is used or advertised:
- in a way that might mislead the recipients of the information
- although not yet formally granted
- although revoked or suspended
- beyond scope of applicability
- after the Customer has made changes to the certified PPE, without taking into consideration Centrocot rules

If even one of the previous circumstances shall occur, Centrocot shall inform the Customer in writing by registered letter with return receipt or by certified e-mail (PEC) (centrocot@certimprese.it), to arrange for suspension to be ended, and review certification.
The manufacturer is forbidden from selling the stocked PPE when related to a suspended/withdrawal certificate. Only after fulfilment of any action requested by Centrocot and if possible, after reassuring the conformity of the stocked PPE, would be possible to sell the item again.
Restoring the certification, including decrease the field of application, is only possible after positive opinion by Centrocot.

3.8.3 Centrocot may revoke the EU Type-examination certificate if the Customer, which has extended his EU Type-examination certificate to his distributor/Importer, informs Centrocot about the decision to interrupt any commercial business with his distributor/importer.

3.8.4 Centrocot may revoke the EU Type-examination certificate if the validity of effectiveness of EU Type-examination certificate has been suspended and the Customer has not removed the causes of suspension within the agreed time. In such case, Centrocot shall inform the Customer in writing with registered letter with return receipt or by certified e-mail (PEC) (centrocot@certimprese.it) about the revocation of EU Type-examination certificate validity, specifying the reasons of the provision.
